OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

July 19, 1982

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

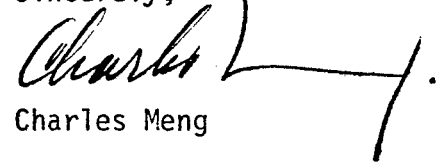

Father Healy has asked that I acknowledge your letter of July 1, 1982.

Unfortunately, Father Healy recently suffered a heart attack. Although it was mild and he is resting well, his doctors have told him to curtail his calendar. I realize your invitation is some months away, but given the demands of our recently announced $115 million fund campaign, he really must limit his non-Georgetown activities.

I know Father Healy would like to sit down to dinner with you one night. Since his doctor has allowed him to see friends I am sure he will be calling to arrange an evening.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Charles Meng
